What to Bring:

NEW!!!! We have an entirely new IRS-endorsed program, so you must bring all of your paperwork. (The new system does not carry over information from prior years.)

1. NEW!!! Proof of health insurance (Form 1095-A, 1095-B or 1095-C)
2. NEW!!! ORIGINAL (no copies) Social Security cards for yourself and everyone in the household that you support, including your spouse, children, grandchildren, relatives, and foster children.
3. Your driver's license or other state issued photo ID card, and for spouse if applicable.
4. W-2s and other wage statements you and your spouse received from all your employers for the tax year
5. The dates of birth for all people you claim as dependents.
6. Any 1099 forms received during the previous year. You may have a 1099 form if you received income from Social Security, Railroad Retirement, Unemployment, Interest, or Dividend Income.
7. Bring any receipts or co-pay statements if you paid for childcare in the past year. Also, be sure to bring the Social Security Number (SSN) or Employer Identification Number (EIN) of your daycare provider, the provider's name, and the daycare address.
8. If you paid for higher education, such as college or a trade school, bring form 1098-T showing evidence of payment and amounts spent on books and other required supplies or equipment (laptops, etc.).
9. Last year's tax return, if you have one. Also, bring any items you think may impact your tax return (such as mortgage statements). If you are not sure, bring it!
10. If you want your refund by direct deposit, you MUST bring a blank check from your bank account or bank slip with your account information.
11. If filing jointly, both the filer and spouse must be present to sign.
